THE NEW CATHEDRAL OF ST. LOUIS

The world's largest collection of mosaics adorns 65,000 square-feet of walls and domes in the foremost example of Byzantine architecture in the Western Hemisphere. Building construction began May 1, 1907. Interior of the 80 foot diameter dome is the largest spherical surface ever covered by mosaics - completed in 1965.

Pub. by St. Louis Cathedral, 4431 Lindell Blvd., St. Louis, Missouri 63108

PLACE STAMP
HERE

Post Card

37545-C

dp MADE BY DEXTER PRESS, INC. WEST NYACK, NEW YORK